Wolf Tales
1957

Central Junior High School
Lawton, Oklahoma

Always ready to understand and to sympathize, the faculty of Central Junior High School has given generously of their time and talents to assist building the moral and learning habits of the students.

With deep appreciation we proudly dedicate our "Wolf Tales" to the faculty of Central Junior High School. We hope they will appreciate every page.

Listen students, and ye shall laugh
About a joke—the Wolf Tale Staff,
The bunch that always gets a pass,
The bunch that always cuts a class,
They never check a roll at all,
They never stay in study hall.
They loaf around from eight till four,
No more done than the day before,
There's lots of things they never do;
Now you have heard the students view.

Listen students, and ye shall see
What the staff does think of thee;
A bunch that won't co-operate,
A bunch that won't appreciate,
You want a yearbook, yes you do,
You crave to know when it is through.
You make us worry, rave, and fret,
For everything from you we get.
Now, who has the right to laugh,
The students—or the Wolf Tale Staff?
